

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Each time the United States Government has officially tested the baking powders the report has shown Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to be of superlative leavening strength, free from alum, absolutely pure and wholesome.

This is gratifying, for Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is depended upon by millions of people to raise their daily bread.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO.

NOTE.—These Government inquiries also developed the fact that there are many mixtures upon the market made in imitation of baking powder, but containing alum or other caustic acid, whose use in food is dangerous.

MISSOURI DAUGHTERS CONFEDERACY INCORPORATED.

A pro forma decree of incorporation has been granted by the circuit court of Lafayette county to the Missouri Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The decree was granted on the petition of Mrs. A. E. Asbury, president; Mrs. F. A. Chase, secretary, and Mrs. R. E. Wilson, treasurer. Appended will be found the constitution under which the organization will work:

The name or title of the association shall be "The Missouri Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy," and its domicile shall be the place of residence of the recording secretary.

The objects of this association are historical, educational, memorial, benevolent and social; to fulfill the duties of charity to the survivors of the war between the states and those dependent upon them; to collect and preserve the material for a truthful history of the war, to protect historic places of the confederacy; to record the part by southern women, as well as untiring effort after the war in the reconstruction of the south as in patient endurance of hardship and patriotic devotion during the struggle; to honor the memory of those who served and those who fell in the service of the confederate states; and to cherish the ties of friendship among the members of society.

Those women entitled to membership are the widows, wives and mothers more than one chapter shall, within thirty days thereafter, file with the recording secretary of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and with the recording secretary of the Missouri division, and with the secretary of each chapter of which at that time she may be a member, a statement in writing setting forth the name of the chapter in which she desires to vote and hold office; and until such statement shall have been filed, such person shall not be entitled to vote or hold office in any chapter.

Seven or more eligible women may organize a chapter in any town or city in the state, in which no chapter exists, by making application to the United Daughters of the Confederacy through the Missouri division thereof for a charter, and paying the charter fees and dues as provided.

A chapter shall be organized by the adoption of a constitution and bylaws, none of which shall be inconsistent with the provisions of this constitution, and by the election of a president and other proper officers.

The Missouri division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy shall furnish blank applications for the membership to be used in all chapters in this state. The mode of electing and admitting members may vary in the several chapters, provided the qualifications for membership may not be inconsistent with the constitution. Conventions of the Missouri division ers, sisters, nieces, and lineal descendants of such men as served honorably in the confederate army, navy, or civil service, or of those men, unfit for active duty, who loyally gave aid to the cause; also women and their lineal descendants, wherever living, who can give proof of personal service and loyal aid to the southern cause during the war.

Seven or more eligible women in any city or town in Missouri in which no chapter exists, may organize a chapter, and be chartered upon application to the United Daughters of the Confederacy, through the Missouri division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and paying to the division such additional charter fees as it may fix, in addition to the charter fee of three dollars, charged by the United Daughters of the Confederacy. No chapter shall be chartered in any incorporated city or town in Missouri in which a chapter already exists, except by and with the consent of the Missouri division.

Nothing in this constitution shall be construed to prevent any chapter from becoming locally incorporated under the laws of the state of Missouri, should it desire to do so.

Each chapter in the state of Missouri shall, on the first day of each succeeding February pay into the treasury of the Missouri division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy the sum of ten cents for each and every member who may at such date be in good standing on the roll of such chapter.

No person shall vote or hold office in more than one chapter at the same time; and every person who may at any time be enrolled as a member of ion shall be held annually, the time and place to be designated by the state officers, due notice of every meeting to be given to each chapter.

Each chapter shall be entitled, in all conventions of the Missouri division, to one vote for every twenty-five members or fraction thereof of not less than seven. Any one or more representatives from any chapter shall be authorized to cast the full vote to which such chapter may be entitled. Any chapter may be represented by proxy, provided such proxy be duly appointed in writing and is a member of the Missouri division.

The president of the Missouri division shall be entitled to one vote in all conventions of said division, in case of a tie vote only. The state president shall not have authority to cast her individual vote by proxy, but same shall be cast by the officer temporarily presiding.

Officers of the Missouri division shall be a president, first vice-president, second vice-president, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer, historian; all of whom shall be elected to serve one year, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

An executive committee, composed of the president, who shall be chairman, the two vice presidents, the recording secretary, the corresponding secretary and the treasurer. Such committee shall be vested with power to conduct the general affairs of the association and to meet whenever business demands. It shall have supervision and control of all the property and affairs of the association. Special meetings of the com-
